8 Financial Advice Provided by Bacera

Bacera only provides general advice, and does not provide specific personal advice to retail or wholesale clients. General advice does not take into account your particular financial objectives, situation, or needs and therefore will not issue a statement of advice.

Under Australian law, general advice can include information regarding Bacera's products and underlying markets, together with Bacera's opinions and analysis of Bacera's products and the underlying markets. Any information you have requested about Bacera's products and the underlying markets or discuss with a Bacera employee should be regarded as general advice only. The employee will not take into consideration your particular financial objectives, situation or needs. Market analysis and website content are examples of general advice provided by Bacera.

Bacera make no warranties or guarantees that the content of the advice is suitable for your individual situation. You should read and consider the relevant PDS and consider seeking independent advice before making any decisions about Bacera products and/or using the services offered by Bacera.

Bacera does not provide personal advice. If you require personal advice specific to your particular financial situation, objectives, or needs, you will need to speak to your own financial advisor. You should obtain professional financial advice based on your own particular circumstances before making an investment decision based on the general advice provided by Bacera.

9 Compensation Received by Bacera

Bacera may charge its clients fees or commissions for opening/holding/closing positions on Bacera's products. The calculation of the price to be paid (or the payout to be received) for products offered by Bacera at the time the contract is closed (either bought or sold) will be based on Bacera's best estimate of market prices and the expected level of interest rates, implied volatilities and other market conditions during the life of the financial contract. A full description of the amounts we charge and when they will be charged can be found in Bacera's PDS.

Spreads - Bacera earns its income from the bid/ask spreads that are embedded in the price quotes on the Bacera ProTrader platform (ProTrader). The Spread is the difference between the Bid and Ask price at which you buy and sell CFDs. You may incur a mark-up within the spread depending on various factors, including rebates agreements, currency pair, market conditions, size of the trade, and prevailing market rates.

Swap Rates (Rollover) - You may also be charged or credited a "Swap Fee" for holding CFDs overnight with Bacera. These fees will vary from day to day and product to product.

Rebates - Bacera may compensate a Referral Party for referring clients to Bacera and such compensation may be on a per-trade basis or other method upon Bacera's discretion.

Commission – The amount of commission paid to a Referral Party is negotiated on an individual basis and the commission paid to referring parties varies. All clients will be asked to agree to commission charges prior to any such commissions being charged, via a commissions consent form.

Commissions on CFD Trades – In addition to possible commission paid to a Referral Party, there is a commission is charged on certain CFD trades as a flat fee per lot.

Taxes – You are responsible for any stamp duty, transaction duty, GST or similar goods and services or value added tax payable in respect of services provided to you by Bacera.

When you enter into transaction you will be required to pay an initial margin. You may also be required to pay additional margin in the event of adverse market movements against your position(s). Such payments are not fees or costs but are funds required by Bacera to cover our risk and as security for the client's obligations.

Withdrawal Restrictions

Funds deposited via credit card are eligible for withdrawal only after 30 business days from date of deposit. Please note that if a client opens and funds an account with Bacera, and closes the account without initiating trade activity, the Client will be liable for all transaction fees accrued in the process of remitting funds.

Administrative Charges are subject to change at Bacera's Discretion. (For more information regarding Bacera's discretion, please refer to Section 2.21 of the PDS.)

11 Remuneration

Our employees are remunerated by way of salary and other employee benefits. They may also be eligible for a discretionary bonus which is based on achievement of predetermined business objectives such as meeting or exceeding standards of excellence in client service.

Please note that certain types of remuneration rewarded to our employees may be benefits given by our clients in relation to the issue or sale of a financial product by Bacera, which include benefits that have been authorized by the client with their clear consent.

12 Dispute Resolution

Bacera strives to assist its Clients with any issues or concerns they may have with our products and services. We work diligently to resolve any problems brought to our attention. We utilize internal and external dispute resolution procedures to resolve disputes we receive from our Clients. Our dispute resolution procedures can be read in detail in our PDS. Initially, all disputes received in writing will be handled and investigated internally by Bacera's Compliance Department.

Contact Bacera's Compliance Department to formally lodge your dispute. Please submit your dispute in writing via email, fax, or letter utilizing the contact information listed in Section 14 of this FSG. Your concerns will be addressed as promptly as possible – typically Bacera seeks to resolve all client disputes within 14 days.

If you, the Client, feel the resolution reached by the company is not satisfactory, you have the option to escalate your concerns to an external dispute resolution scheme. If you are dissatisfied with the resolution that Bacera has proposed, you have the right to take your dispute to the Financial Ombudsman Services (FOS). The FOS is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution scheme, of which Bacera is a member (Membership No. 13333), and can be reached at 1 800 367 287 (Australia). You may also make a dispute at the ASIC free call info line at 1300 300 630 (Australia).

12 Professional Indemnity Insurance

Bacera has professional indemnity insurance arrangements in place which satisfies the requirements for compensation arrangements under section 921B of the Corporations Act. These arrangements are in place to compensate individuals who suffer loss or damage as a result of a breach of Bacera's obligations. Our professional indemnity insurance takes into account the nature and volume of our business, the number of clients and types of clients we have, our representatives and the maximum potential extent of liability. Our Professional Indemnity Insurance also covers a claim in relation to the conduct of representatives and employees who no longer work for us but who did at the relevant time.

13 Personal Information and Associations

In accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Act 2006, Bacera has an obligation to collect information and verify the identity of its clients. This information is referred to as Know Your Client or KYC information. Bacera will carry out its customer identification and verification procedures in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988.

Bacera does not have any relationships or associations with other financial institutions which might reasonably be expected to be capable of influencing us in providing financial services to you.

Before conducting business with any so-called "branch office" or "representative office" of Bacera Co Pty Ltd, please contact Bacera directly using the contact information contained within this FSG to verify the authenticity of these offices.
